

Common Academic Experience

Developed out of Foundations of Excellence

Common text used in courses where meaningful connections can be found

Creates opportunities for co-curricular and extra-curricular activities (research papers, conversation cafés, film discussions, theatrical productions, music events, geocaching, field research, service-learning, and author visits)

Helps first-year students understand:

- connections between disciplines
- benefits of participating in co-curricular activities

